The ALA South Central Group is pleased to invite you to its 'Death of a Farmer' Workshop to be held at Gateway House, Tollgate, Chandlers Ford, Hampshire, SO53 3TG on 14 November 2018.

Philip Whitcomb is a Partner in Moore Blatch's Agricultural Tax and Trusts team and will be chairing the workshop with a view to exploring the practical action points you need to address following the death of a farmer. The workshop will review the ongoing challenges when administering an estate with a farm; how you should approach completion of the IHT405 413 and 414 forms; getting the right information and avoiding the pitfalls. This workshop will cover the following:

- What is 'a farmer' – the characteristics and challenges
- What makes up a farm?
- First steps when you are notified of a death – how the family can help your case
- The farming business – what you need to ask
- Sole trader, a farming partnership or company?
- Practical steps on how the farm is to run
- The sole trader issue and the role of the farm management agreement
- Financing and valuations
- And much more

Itinerary:

More information about the ALA:

The ALA was founded in 1975 to provide a forum for professionals serving agriculture (lawyers, surveyors, accountants, bankers, farm business consultants and others) to support each other in their specialism. Day conferences are held each Spring and Autumn which provide an excellent selection of agriculturally-based talks plus an opportunity for networking. For more information, visit www.ala.org.uk

The regional groups are an initiative to cater for practitioners at a local level, their purpose being to:

- Provide a source of continuing professional development for those in rural businesses
- Encourage the development of working relationships by inter-professional networking
