

ALA CHESHIRE & NORTH WALES AUTUMN SEMINAR

PLANNING AHEAD IN A PERIOD OF UNCERTAINTY

Vale of Clwyd Livestock Centre, Ruthin, LL15 1PB
Wednesday, 13 November 2019 – 8am to 11am

The ALA Cheshire & North Wales regions are pleased to invite you to an Autumn Seminar to be held at the Vale of Clwyd Livestock Centre, Ruthin on Wednesday, 13 November 2019.

Speakers:

Dr Nerys Llewelyn Jones FALA, Managing Partner, Agri Advisor

Dr Nerys Llewelyn Jones will set out the political and legal context of where we have got to in terms of Brexit, events and timetable going forward including a brief overview of the draft legislation being put forward on Brexit.

She will also set out a brief outline of the recent consultation Sustainable Farming by Welsh Government, schemes currently available to farmers and the change to NVZ rules in Wales from 1st January 2020.

Roy Jackson MAAT FCCA, Partner & Pip Elms FCA, Senior Accounts Manager, Whittingham Riddell

Given the ever-changing landscape of the farming industry, Roy Jackson and Pip Elms from Whittingham Riddell Chartered Accountants & Business Advisors will talk through key issues and offer examples of practical advice and solutions to help plan and protect farming businesses for the future, including:

How businesses can review and improve management information efficiently to enable informed decisions in real time

Providing an insight to options available for farming businesses to overcome current and future challenges

Understanding any potential tax implications and tax planning options available for such changes

Peter Lewis MRICS, J.Bradburne Price & Co

Agricultural Land Prices and Brexit

Many factors influence agricultural land prices the importance and implications of which vary with time and the emergence of new factors. Brexit and the repercussions arising therefrom could influence these existing factors. Peter will give his opinion as to these influences on land values and try and provide some foresight to future trends relying on over 35 years of experience in selling and valuing agricultural land in North Wales and the North West.

More information about the ALA:

The ALA was founded in 1975 to provide a forum for professionals serving agriculture (lawyers, surveyors, accountants, bankers, farm business consultants and others) to support each other in their specialism. Day conferences are held each Spring and Autumn which provide an excellent selection of agriculturally-based talks plus an opportunity for networking. For more information, visit www.ala.org.uk

The regional groups are an initiative to cater for practitioners at a local level, their purpose being to:

- Provide a source of continuing professional development for those in rural businesses
- Encourage the development of working relationships by inter-professional networking
